MEDIA ALERT/PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

Volunteers Deliver Miracle Bears to Kids at St. Luke's Children's Hospital

WHO: Volunteers from Kid For A Night Committee.

WHAT: Delivering "Miracle Bears" to patients at St. Luke's Children's Hospital

WHERE: Meet Jennifer Bonham from St. Luke's Health Foundation in the main lobby of St. Luke's Boise

WHEN: 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 10.

WHY: Miracle Bears are beautiful custom stuffed animals created by local Volunteers. The bears are part of a fundraising auction at Kid For A Night, St. Luke's annual fundraising event for the Children's Hospital that took place June 5. More than 50 donors chose to donate their bears back to kids in the hospital. Wednesday's visit will be from the volunteer committee who organized this year's Kid For a Night.
